Join us in welcoming our skilled professionals

Executive Director: Stacey Gallardo

Stacey sets the tone at Columbus with a distinguished mix of education, healthcare experience and compassion. She holds a Practical Nursing Certificate from Ivy Tech and an Administrators License from Success Development. She was also nominated for the Director of the Year during her time leading an assisted living community in Greenwood.

"Traditions is an exceptional company that I am blessed to work for. From our Core Values to the Culture created in each of our Communities, Traditions truly encompasses a home-like atmosphere where everyone is family."

Stacey was born and raised right here in Columbus. She currently lives in Center Grove with her husband, Steve, her two children (Ella and Eli), and her pups.

Community Relations Director: Mimi Walsh

Mimi was born and raised in Columbus, Indiana, a place where she says 'everybody knows your name.' She has a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from IU, Dementia Friends training with Thrive Alliance, and close to a decade of experience working with seniors.

"I've always been drawn to working with seniors, and I find a sense of purpose in making a difference for someone. Someone like Belva, a dear resident who would greet me every day, often with a treat, like a starter from her Christmas cactus. I became very good friends with her and her family, and stay in touch with them to this day. Just before Belva passed, I brought two chocolate milkshakes (her favorite) to her room to enjoy together. She wasn't able to drink much, but I will never forget how we both smiled and how I knew by looking into her eyes that I was saying goodbye to one of my favorite people. I still have the plant she gave me and I think of her and smile every time it blooms. Families like Belva's can be assured that we will treat them and their loved ones with dignity and love. That's why we are here." Mimi and her husband Nate have been married for 15 years and have five children, one boy, and four girls.
